disappearing during you're 20s

we all Ralph today

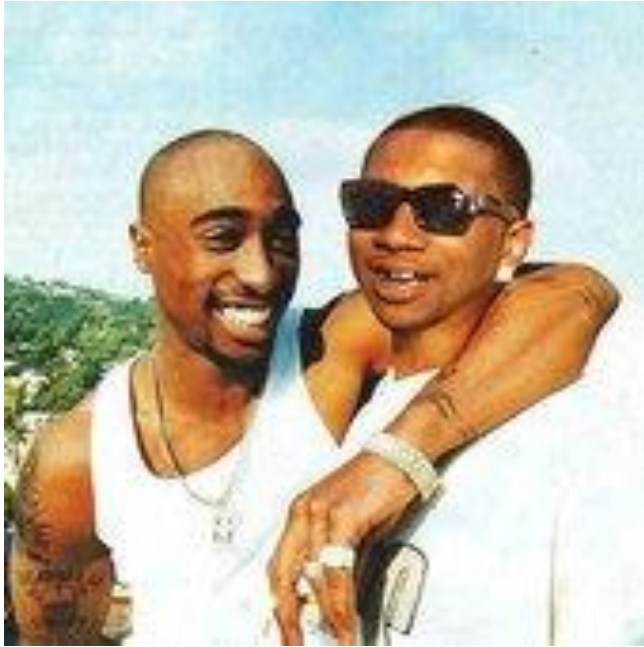

- don't talk to anyone during you are 20s
- don't go outside
- don't have frens
- don't have fun
- just hustle and grind on the legs of alpha males
- hide in your room and become based
- only social interaction you're allowed is telling other based people to kill themselves on internet forums
- shoutout to the newly divorced single mums i am indeed single

- lol jk can't believe you fell for that dumbass loser lmao

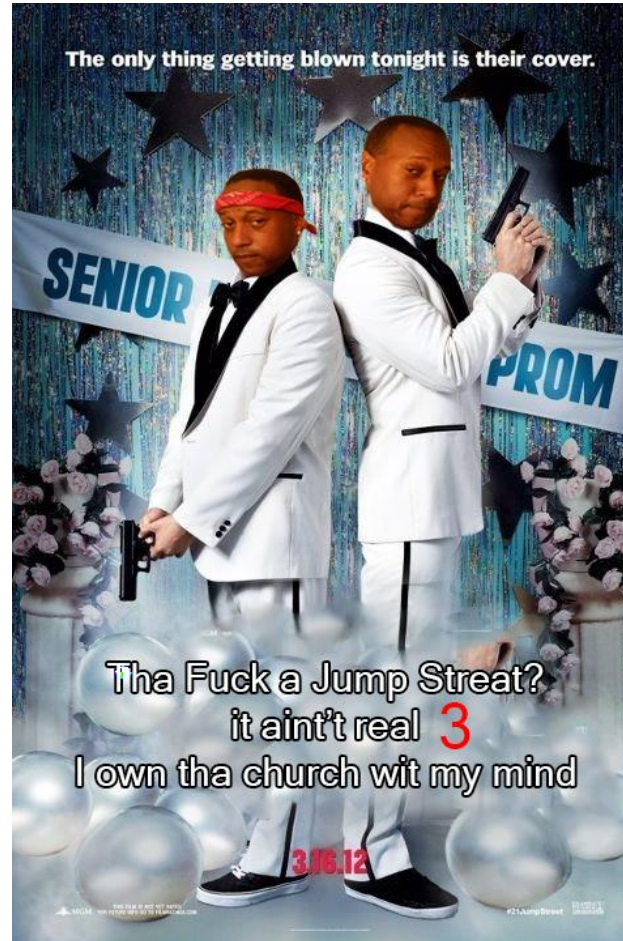

why disappearing during 'muh youth years' is a terrible idea

- missing out on meeting frens that could change your life for good - you never know until you put yourself out there, but your not gonna find them hiding in your sigma dungeon grinding on things like the sweaty loser you are kek
- social skills are skills, and skills need practice, no practice = no skills = no succubus baddie gf, simple as.

- mUh tWeNtIeS only happen once, i mean yea u can have fun at any age but bare people drop off the map after 30s roll around bc they knocked up some random, (don't get married or have kids lads u heard it here first) 20s only happen once, don't be a fucking goober and not take advantage of them
- life isn't guaranteed. bogdanoffs died so anything is possible, if it could happen to the bogs it could happen to you. stop hiding in your sweaty mancave and go outside, stop touching rocks and start touching grass. i could pull up outside your house with the sawed off and take it all from you... i WILL pull up with the sawed off if you don't shut the fuck up and stop being a little bitch
- don't disappear son come talk to samaritans dial our number at 069420911666
- listen to beatdown hardcore you pussy

nuance is everything

- no shit there's nuance to this rihanna
- not telling you to go out get drunk/high every night, you'll lose bare sleep and won't have any energy left to rizz the baddies with
- i don't actually party that hard, probably stay up past my bedtime 3-4 times a month max, don't drink, don't hookup/ONS, prefer to hangout with friends during the daytime and get to bed on time when i can
- grinding on the legs of alpha males should still be you're main focus BUT hanging with the boys and rizzing the baddies is a VERY important supplement to your life of grinding on things like an uncastrated puppy
- BUTT if u just grind all the time you'll ~~cowards don't even burn out from~~ grinding and have no energy left to grind or rizz baddies with. bleak!!
